

Student Guide to Waiving Caltech Insurance

What's Inside

Waiver Requirements

To waive the Caltech Student Medical Plan, you must have other health insurance that meets Caltech's waiver requirements.

2016-17 Caltech Student Medical Waiver Requirements

1	My plan covers inpatient and outpatient medical care and mental health care within 10 miles of the campus area, including routine, urgent and emergency care (emergency only coverage does not satisfy this requirement).
2	My insurance annual deductible does not exceed $2,750 per individual per policy year or $6,250 per family per policy year.
3	My out-of-pocket expenses cannot exceed $10,000 per policy year.
4	My plan offers unlimited coverage per accident or illness.
5	My plan provides coverage for pre-existing conditions.
6	My plan provides coverage for prescription drugs.
7	My plan provides coverage throughout the entire academic year.
8	My plan is provided by an insurance company based in the United States.
9	I understand that I am legally responsible for all medical expenses I incur and that Caltech will not be responsible for any of my medical expenses, even if I am referred by a Caltech Student Health Center Clinician.

If you are an international student in J-1 status, your other health insurance must meet Caltech's waiver requirements and insurance requirements established by the Department of State. See page 8 for details.

Some Helpful Tips

The Caltech Student Medical Plan is designed to make it as easy as possible for you to get the care you need while you are away from home. If you waive the plan and rely on your own insurance, receiving care might be a challenge.

If you waive the Caltech Student Medical Plan:

Bring your insurance card to Caltech and carry it with you at all times.

Some health care providers require payment at the time care is rendered. You'll need to have a credit card for those situations.

It's up to you to find local providers for care not available through the Caltech Student Health Center. Get a list of local providers who participate in the plan's network — physician, pharmacy, mental health counselor, hospital, etc. At the very least, you should know how to find local plan providers online or by calling the plan's customer service number.

Learn about how the other insurance works: What payment is required at the time care is received? Is there a deductible? Will claims need to be submitted? Are there coverage limits?

Make sure you have all the necessary contact information in the event of illness or injury, so you can contact the insurance company.

Some Helpful Tips

If you waive the Caltech Student Medical Plan, make sure you know:

- How your insurance company defines urgent care vs. emergency care?
- After an urgent or emergency situation, will the plan cover follow-up medical care provided by doctors near Caltech?
- Does the plan require you to get permission (e.g., from a primary care physician) before you can receive specialty care or see a provider away from home (often called a “referral”)?
- Does the plan restrict you to certain designated doctors or hospitals?
- If you are injured playing intercollegiate sports, will your health plan cover medically necessary care and follow-up treatment?

Preparing for an unexpected illness or injury will make it easier for you to get the care you need ... and could save you from unnecessary expenses.
